

The CCS Fellows Program is open to all graduate students in their 2nd year or above, and to undergraduate students at junior level or above, from any Department at the University of Miami. Applicants must demonstrate an interest in computational science, and an ability to think about research in a cross-disciplinary environment.

1. Your Name and Student Information

First and Last Name _____

E-mail Address _____

Physical Address _____

UM Student ID # _____

Major/Minor _____

Current GPA Score _____

2. Your Departmental and Program Information

Home Department and/or Graduate Program (if applicable) _____

Academic Advisor and/or Research Mentor _____

Would you be interested in earning research and/or writing credits? Yes No

Are you already working with CCS? Yes No If Yes, with whom? _____

3. Do you already have a Pegasus account? Yes, I am an active user Yes, but I am not an active user No

4. How would you rate your computational skills? (check one)

- Never programmed Before
- Beginner (have done some programming)
- Intermediate
- Advanced, but never worked in a command-line environment
- Advanced and have worked in a command-line environment

5. List your computational skills, if any: (e.g. programming languages, tools, environment, and other statistical/mathematical skills)

6. List math/science/engineering courses in which you are currently enrolled: (title, code, department)

7. Statement of Interest

Please provide below 2-3 paragraphs on your interests in the computational science arena. If you already have a subject or specific cross-disciplinary project in mind, please tell us about it.

8. Your Application Checklist

- Completed Application Form
- Support Letter from your Academic Advisor and/or Research Mentor recommending you for this program and telling us about cross-disciplinary fields that would enhance their research
- A Copy of your Transcript
- Your CV

Please submit your application via email to: ccseducation@miami.edu.

Upon review of your application, you will receive a letter of notification. Thank you for your interest.